

edward johnson building
faculty of music
university of toronto

DENIS BROTT, CELLIST

ANNE EPPERSON, PIANIST

ASSISTING ARTIST ANDREW DAWES, VIOLIN

WALTER HALL

MONDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1982

8 P.M.

Since beginning his professional solo career in 1971, DENIS BROTT has appeared throughout the United States and Canada, in England, France, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Denmark, Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia and Mexico. He was a protégé of Gregor Piatigorsky and is currently the cellist of the Orford String Quartet, the University of Toronto Quartet-in-Residence.

PROGRAM

Sonata Opus 102 No. 1 in C Major

Beethoven

Andante

Adagio

Allegro vivace

Sonata Opus 119

Prokofiev

Andante grave

Moderato

Allegro, ma non troppo

INTERMISSION

Sonata for Violin and Cello

Ravel

Allegro

Tres vif

Lent

Vif, avec entrain

ANDREW DAWES, violin

Variations on a Rococo Theme Opus 33

Chaikovsky

Next Concert: University of Toronto Symphony Orchestra
Saturday October 16, 1982
8 p.m. MacMillan Theatre